CSLF Announces Winners of the CSLF College Scholarship Giveaway Sweepstakes

Twenty Students Each Receive $1,000 to Help Pay Higher Education Expenses

Rocky Hill, CT – May 8, 2006 – The Connecticut Student Loan Foundation (CSLF®) is pleased to announce the twenty winners of the 2005-2006 CSLF College Scholarship Giveaway Sweepstakes. Each winner receives a $1,000 scholarship to help pay for first year expenses at their college or university.

The twenty winners are: Brian Dominguez, attending Bridgeport Hospital School of Nursing (Bridgeport, CT); Andrew Baronski, Cassandra Flaherty, Shannon Murphy, and Scott Seaman, attending Eastern Connecticut State University (Willimantic, CT); Amanda Anziano, attending Gateway Community College (New Haven, CT); Angel Picart, Kathryn Phaneuf, Carol Pyne, and Elisabeth Wessells, attending Mount Wachusett Community College (Gardner, MA); Colin Bradley, attending Sacred Heart University (Fairfield, CT); Jed Crocket, Jason Perry, Dana Proto, Teresa Sadlowski, and Tara Shingola, attending Southern Connecticut State University (New Haven, CT); Kyle Cunningham, Kathryn Hallam, and Matthew Ramsey, attending Western Connecticut State University (Danbury, CT); and Matthew Mouradian, attending Yale University (New Haven, CT).

The CSLF College Scholarship Giveaway ran from April 1, 2005 – January 15, 2006. Winners were randomly selected from eligible entries received between these dates. Students with CSLF loans processed between these dates were automatically entered along with entries received by mail.

“CSLF is pleased to award the funds and assist these students in paying for their higher education expenses,” said Mark W. Valenti, President of CSLF. “The CSLF College Scholarship Giveaway is yet another example of how CSLF meets its mission of providing access to funding for higher education,” said Mr. Valenti.
